Welcome to the 2017 Australian Masters Rowing Championships

Thursday 18 – Sunday 21 May 2017, Nagambie Lakes

Dear Masters Community,

I would like to share a little.

My first experience of masters rowing was at the Australian Master's Championships in Nagambie in 2008. As a young chap I had not yet been exposed to the level of competition and challenge to be had. My knowledge of masters up to that point had been watching the odd crew go out for a social paddle. I had no idea that endurance improves with age, or that athletes can be launched from any point in your life. I looked on at skilled artisans of the sport still competing, and smiling, and grimacing. I watched new members taking up the challenge, and watched as those new members raced on over the years to accrue skill and fitness and compete.

In my mind it was the experience of the master's nationals that instilled this desire to become an athlete again or to learn to become one. The social camaraderie, the racing format as well as the sterling competition and field size.

So as President of the Organising Committee for AMRC 2017, it is with great pleasure that I can say welcome to racing back at Nagambie. The facilities are in top shape, and we are pulling out the stops. The community has really rallied around the location, and there are many accommodation options. We are looking forward to a big trade show display and some excellent choices for lunch, second lunch and elevenses. Alternatively take a short trip down the road to a winery and sample the local produce whilst dining in style. I can also recommend some of the local taverns in Nagambie, Avenel or Longwood.

I look forward to matching up with you on the start, or on the bank with your choice of beverage. (yes there will be extra coffee vans and a bar). So get your gear on, enjoy the best part of the day on the water and bring it.

Nick Inglis

Chair of the 2017 AMRC Organising Committee

The Venue: Nagambie Lakes, Victoria

The regatta is to be held at Nagambie Lakes, in the Shire of Strathbogie, 100km north of Melbourne. The lake is an excellent facility that has hosted many national championships. The lake has a recently upgraded fully buoyed, 8 lane course with fabulous competitor and spectator facilities.

Lake Nagambie is one of Australia's most scenic places to go fishing, water skiing, sailing, rowing along, canoeing or simply relaxing on its banks over a picnic and strolling along the boardwalk. There is easy boat access to the adjacent Goulburn River for training and sightseeing.

The Strathbogrie region boasts an escape to fresh air, natural attractions and so much to see, do, experience and taste. Including stunning views from the heights of our ranges and charming villages, with locally produced fine food and wine.
